

Dear Commissioners,

Please stop urban sprawl. The best way to fix carbon which is the key to slowing climate change is allowing nature to thrive. Nature doesn't thrive to the tune of bulldozers and chain saws. This is a world treasure that needs to be protected at all costs.

Regards,
Nat salter
916 8th St
Hood River, OR 97031